24 are being utilized for related programs, to be merged with 25 and to be available for the same time period as the appropri-

1 EMERGENCY FUND, DEFENSE

2 For transfer by the Secretary of Defense, with the 3 approval of the Office of Management and Budget, to any 4 appropriation for military functions under the Department of 5 Defense available for research, development, test, and evalua-6 tion, or procurement or production related thereto, to be 7 merged with and to be available for the same purposes, and 8 for the same time period, as the appropriation to which trans-9 ferred; $50,000,000, and, in addition, not to exceed 10 $150,000,000, to be used upon determination by the Secre-
11 tary of Defense that such funds can be wisely, profitably, 12 and practically used in the interest of national defense and to 13 be derived by transfer from such appropriations available to 14 the Department of Defense for obligation during the current 15 fiscal year as the Secretary of Defense may designate: Pro- 16 vided, That any appropriations transferred shall not exceed 17 7 per centum of the appropriations from which transferred.

18 TITLE VI
19 COMBAT READINESS, SOUTH VIETNAMESE
20 FORCES, DEFENSE

21 For transfer, by the Secretary of Defense, upon determi-
22 nation by the President that such action is necessary to fur-
23 ther improve the combat readiness of the forces of the Repub-24 lic of South Vietnam, to any appropriation available to the 25 Department of Defense for military functions to be merged

23

1 with the appropriation to which transferred, $358,500,000,
2 to remain available for the period of availability of the appro-
3 priation to which transferred, and in addition $150,- 4 000,000 to be derived by transfer from such appropriations 5 available to the Department of Defense for obligation in the 6 current fiscal year as the Secretary of Defense, with the 7 approval of the President, may designate: Provided, That 8 the Secretary of Defense shall notify the Congress promptly 9 of all transfers made pursuant to this authority.

10 TITLE VII

11 SPECIAL FOREIGN CURRENCY PROGRAM

12 For payment in foreign currencies which the Treasury
13 Department determines to be excess to the normal require-
14 ments of the United States, for expenses of carrying out pro-
15 grams of the Department of Defense, as authorized by law, 16 $2,621,000, to remain available for obligation until June 30, 17 1973: Provided, That this appropriation shall be available, 18 in addition to other appropriations to such Department, for 19 payments in the foregoing currencies.

20 TITLE VIII

21 GENERAL PROVISIONS

22 SEC. 801. No part of any appropriation contained in 23 this Act shall be used for publicity or propaganda purposes
24 not authorized by the Congress.

25 SEC. 802. During the current fiscal year, the Secretary

1 of Defense and the Secretaries of the Army, Navy, and Air 2 Force, respectively, if they should deem it advantageous to 3 the national defense, and if in their opinions the existing 4 facilities of the Department of Defense are inadequate, are 5 authorized to procure services in accordance with 5 U.S.C.
6 3109, under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of 7 Defense, and to pay in connection therewith travel expenses
8 of individuals, including actual transportation and per diem 9 in lieu of subsistence while traveling from their homes or 10 places of business to official duty station and return as may 11 be authorized by law: Provided, That such contracts may be 12 renewed annually.

13 SEC. 803. During the current fiscal year, provisions of 14 law prohibiting the payment of compensation to, or employ-15 ment of, any person not a citizen of the United States shall 16 not apply to personnel of the Department of Defense.

17 SEC. 804. Appropriations contained in this Act shall be 18 available for insurance of official motor vehicles in foreign 19 countries, when required by laws of such countries; pay-20 ments in advance of expenses determined by the investi-
21 gating officer to be necessary and in accord with local cus-22 tom for conducting investigations in foreign countries inci-23 dent to matters relating to the activities of the department
24 concerned; reimbursement of General Services Administra-
25 tion for security guard services for protection of confidential

1 files; reimbursement of the Federal Bureau of Investigation
2 for expenses in connection with investigation of defense con-3 tractor personnel; and all necessary expenses, at the seat of 4 government of the United States of America or elsewhere, 5 in connection with communication and other services and 6 supplies as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of 7 this Act.

8 SEC. 805. Any appropriation available to the Army, 9 Navy, or the Air Force may, under such regulations as the 10 Secretary concerned may prescribe, be used for expenses
11 incident to the maintenance, pay, and allowances of prisoners
12 of war, other persons in Army, Navy, or Air Force custody 13 whose status is determined by the Secretary concerned to be 14 similar to prisoners of war, and persons detained in such 15 custody pursuant to Presidential proclamation.

16 SEC. 806. Appropriations available to the Department 17 of Defense for the current fiscal year for maintenance or 18 construction shall be available for acquisition of land or 19 interest therein as authorized by section 2672 or 2675 of 20 title 10, United States Code.

21 SEC. 807. Appropriations for the Department of De-
22 fense for the current fiscal year shall be available, (a) 23 except as authorized by the Act of September 30, 1950 (20 24 U.S.C. 236-244), for primary and secondary schooling for 25 minor dependents of military and civilian personnel of the

1 Department of Defense residing on military or naval installa-2 tions or stationed in foreign countries, as authorized for the 3 Navy by section 7204 of title 10, United States Code, in 4 amounts not exceeding $134,400,000, when the Secretary
5 of the Department concerned finds that schools, if any, avail-6 able in the locality, are unable to provide adequately for 7 the education of such dependents: Provided, That under such 8 regulations as may be issued by the Secretary of Defense, 9 such schooling in a school operated by the Department of 10 Defense under this section may be provided without tuition 11 for minor dependents of civilian and military personnel of 12 the Department of Defense who died while entitled to com-13 pensation or active duty pay: Provided further, That where 14 such personnel die subsequent to the date of this Act, such 15 schooling must be continued or commenced within 1 year 16 after the date of death; (b) for expenses in connection with 17 administration of occupied areas; (c) for payment of 18 rewards as authorized for the Navy by section 7209 (a) of 19 title 10, United States Code, for information leading to the 20 discovery of missing naval property or the recovery thereof;
21 (d) for payment of deficiency judgments and interests there-
22 on arising out of condemnation proceedings; (e) for leasing 23 of buildings and facilities including payment of rentals for 24 special purpose space at the seat of government, and in the 25 conduct of field exercises and maneuvers or, in administering

1 the provisions of 43 U.S.C. 315q, rentals may be paid in 2 advance; (f) payments under contracts for maintenance 3 of tools and facilities for twelve months beginning at any 4 time during the fiscal year; (g) maintenance of Defense 5 access roads certified as important to national defense in 6 accordance with section 210 of title 23, United States Code; 7 (h) for the purchase of milk for enlisted personnel of 8 the Department of Defense heretofore made available pur-9 suant to section 1446a, title 7, United States Code, and the 10 cost of milk so purchased, as determined by the Secretary of 11 Defense, shall be included in the value of the commuted
12 ration; (i) transporting civilian clothing to the home of rec-13 ord of selective service inductees and recruits on entering the 14 military services; (j) payments under leases for real or per-15 sonal property for twelve months beginning at any time dur-16 ing the fiscal year; (k) pay and allowances of not to exceed 17 nine persons, including personnel detailed to International 18 Military Headquarters and Organizations, at rates provided
19 for under section 625 (d) (1) of the Foreign Assistance Act 20 of 1961, as amended.

21 SEC. 808. Appropriations for the Department of De-22 fense for the current fiscal year shall be available for:
23 (a) donations of not to exceed $25 to each prisoner upon 24 each release from confinement in military or contract
25 prison and to each person discharged for fraudulent en-

1 listment; (b) authorized issues of articles to prisoners, appli-
2 cants for enlistment and persons in military custody; (c) 3 subsistence of selective service registrants called for induc-
4 tion, applicants for enlistment, prisoners, civilian employees
5 as authorized by law, and supernumeraries when neces-
6 sitated by emergent military circumstances; (d) reimburse-7 ment for subsistence of enlisted personnel while sick in 8 hospitals; (e) expenses of prisoners confined in nonmilitary 9 facilities; (f) military courts, boards, and commissions; 10 (g) utility services for buildings erected at private cost, as 11 authorized by law, and buildings on military reservations 12 authorized by regulations to be used for welfare and recrea-
13 tional purposes; (h) exchange fees, and losses in the ac-14 counts of disbursing officers or agents in accordance with 15 law; (i) expenses of Latin-American cooperation as au-
16 thorized for the Navy by law (10 U.S.C. 7208) ; and (j)
17 expenses of apprehension and delivery of deserters, prisoners, 18 and members absent without leave, including payment of 19 rewards of not to exceed $25 in any one case.

20 SEC. 809. Insofar as practicable, the Secretary of De-
21 fense shall assist American small business to participate 22 equitably in the furnishing of commodities and services
23 financed with funds appropriated under this Act by making 24 available or causing to be made available to suppliers in 25 the United States, and particularly to small independent

1 enterprises, information, as far in advance as possible, with 2 respect to purchases proposed to be financed with funds 3 appropriated under this Act, and by making available or 4 causing to be made available to purchasing and contracting 5 agencies of the Department of Defense information as to 6 commodities and services produced and furnished by small 7 independent enterprises in the United States, and by other-
8 wise helping to give small business an opportunity to par-
9 ticipate in the furnishing of commodities and services
10 financed with funds appropriated by this Act.

11 SEC. 810. No appropriation contained in this Act shall 12 be available for expenses of operation of messes (other 13 than organized messes the operating expenses of which 14 are financed principally from nonappropriated funds) at 15 which meals are sold to officers or civilians, except under 16 regulations approved by the Secretary of Defense, which 17 shall (except under unusual or extraordinary circumstances)
18 establish rates for such meals sufficient to provide reimburse-19 ment of operating expenses and food costs to the appropri-
20 ations concerned: Provided, That officers and civilians in a 21 travel status receiving a per diem allowance in lieu of sub-22 sistence shall be charged at the rate of not less than $2.50 23 per day: Provided further, That for the purposes of this 24 section payments for meals at the rates established here-
25 under may be made in cash or by deduction from the pay

1 of civilian employees: Provided further, That members of 2 organized nonprofit youth groups sponsored at either the 3 national or local level, when extended the privilege of visit-
4 ing a military installation and permitted to eat in the general 5 mess by the commanding officer of the installation, shall 6 pay the commuted ration cost of such meal or meals.

7 SEC. 811. No part of any appropriation contained in this 8 Act shall remain available for obligation beyond the current 9 fiscal year unless expressly so provided herein.

10 SEC. 812. Appropriations of the Department of De-11 fense available for operation and maintenance, may be 12 reimbursed during the current fiscal year for all expenses
13 involved in the preparation for disposal and for the disposal 14 of military supplies, equipment, and materiel, and for all 15 expenses of production of lumber or timber products pur-16 suant to section 2665 of title 10, United States Code, from 17 amounts received as proceeds from the sale of any such 18 property: Provided, That a report of receipts and disburse-
19 ments under this limitation shall be made quarterly to Con-
20 gress: Provided further, That no funds available to agencies
21 of the Department of Defense shall be used for the operation, 22 acquisition, or construction of new facilities or equipment 23 for new facilities in the continental limits of the United 24 States for metal scrap baling or shearing or for melting or 25 sweating aluminum scrap unless the Secretary of Defense

1 or an Assistant Secretary of Defense designated by him 2 determines, with respect to each facility involved, that the 3 operation of such facility is in the national interest.

4 SEC. 813. (a) During the current fiscal year, the Presi-
5 dent may exempt appropriations, funds, and contract author-
6 izations, available for military functions under the Depart-7 ment of Defense, from the provisions of subsection (c) of 8 section 3679 of the Revised Statutes, as amended, whenever 9 he deems such action to be necessary in the interests of na-10 tional defense.

11 (b) Upon determination by the President that such 12 action is necessary, the Secretary of Defense is authorized to 13 provide for the cost of an airborne alert as an excepted ex-
14 pense in accordance with the provisions of Revised Statutes
15 3732 (41 U.S.C. 11).

16 (c) Upon determination by the President that it is neces-17 sary to increase the number of military personnel on active 18 duty beyond the number for which funds are provided in this 19 Act, the Secretary of Defense is authorized to provide for the 20 cost of such increased military personnel, as an excepted ex-
21 pense in accordance with the provisions of Revised Statutes
22 3732 (41 U.S.C. 11).

23 (d) The Secretary of Defense shall immediately advise 24 Congress of the exercise of any authority granted in this sec-

1 tion, and shall report monthly on the estimated obligations
2 incurred pursuant to subsections (b) and (c).

3 SEC. 814. No appropriation contained in this Act shall 4 be available in connection with the operation of commis-
5 sary stores of the agencies of the Department of Defense 6 for the cost of purchase (including commercial transportation 7 in the United States to the place of sale but excluding all 8 transportation outside the United States) and maintenance of 9 operating equipment and supplies, and for the actual or esti-
10 mated cost of utilities as may be furnished by the Government
11 and of shrinkage, spoilage, and pilferage of merchandise
12 under the control of such commissary stores, except as author-13 ized under regulations promulgated by the Secretaries of the 14 military departments concerned, with the approval of the 15 Secretary of Defense, which regulations shall provide for 16 reimbursement therefor to the appropriations concerned and, 17 notwithstanding any other provision of law, shall provide for 18 the adjustment of the sales prices in such commissary stores 19 to the extent necessary to furnish sufficient gross revenue 20 from sales of commissary stores to make such reimbursement:
21 Provided, That under such regulations as may be issued pur-
22 suant to this section all utilities may be furnished without cost 23 to the commissary stores outside the continental United 24 States and in Alaska: Provided further, That no appropri-
25 ation contained in this Act shall be available in connection

1 with the operation of commissary stores within the continen-
2 tal United States unless the Secretary of Defense has certified 3 that items normally procured from commissary stores are 4 not otherwise available at a reasonable distance and a reason-5 able price in satisfactory quality and quantity to the military 6 and civilian employees of the Department of Defense.

7 SEC. 815. Notwithstanding any other provision of law,
8 Executive order, or regulation, no part of the appropriations 9 in this Act shall be available for any expenses of operating 10 aircraft under the jurisdiction of the Armed Forces for 11 the purpose of proficiency flying except in accordance with 12 the regulations issued by the Secretaries of the Depart-
13 ments concerned and approved by the Secretary of Defense 14 which shall establish proficiency standards and maximum 15 and minimum flying hours for this purpose: Provided, That 16 without regard to any provision of law or Executive order 17 prescribing minimum flight requirements, such regulations
18 may provide for the payment of flight pay at the rates pre-19 scribed in section 301 of title 37, United States Code, to 20 certain members of the Armed Forces otherwise entitled 21 to receive flight pay during the current fiscal year (1) who 22 have held aeronautical ratings or designations for not less 23 than fifteen years, or (2) whose particular assignment out-24 side the United States or in Alaska makes it impractical to 1 participate in regular aerial flights, or who have been as-2 signed to a course of instruction of 90 days or more.

3 SEC. 816. No part of any appropriation contained in this 4 Act shall be available for expense of transportation, packing, 5 crating, temporary storage, drayage, and unpacking of house-
6 hold goods and personal effects in any one shipment having a 7 net weight in excess of thirteen thousand five hundred pounds.

8 SEC. 817. Vessels under the jurisdiction of the Depart-
9 ment of Commerce, the Department of the Army, Depart-
10 ment of the Air Force, or the Department of the Navy 11 may be transferred or otherwise made available without 12 reimbursement to any such agencies upon the request of the 13 head of one agency and the approval of the agency having 14 jurisdiction of the vessels concerned.

15 SEC. 818. None of the funds provided in this Act shall 16 be available for training in any legal profession nor for the 17 payment of tuition for training in such profession: Provided, 18 That this limitation shall not apply to the off-duty training 19 of military personnel as prescribed by section 822 of this Act.

20 SEC. 819. Not more than 20 per centum of the ap-
21 propriations in this Act which are limited for obligation 22 during the current fiscal year shall be obligated during the 23 last two months of the fiscal year: Provided, That this sec-
24 tion shall not apply to obligations for support of active duty

1 training of civilian components or summer-camp training of 2 the Reserve Officers' Training Corps.

3 SEC. 820. During the current fiscal year the agencies
4 of the Department of Defense may accept the use of real 5 property from foreign countries for the United States in 6 accordance with mutual defense agreements or occupational 7 arrangements and may accept services furnished by for-8 eign countries as reciprocal international courtesies or as 9 services customarily made available without charge; and 10 such agencies may use the same for the support of the United 11 States forces in such areas without specific appropriation 12 therefor.

13 In addition to the foregoing, agencies of the Department
14 of Defense may accept real property, services, and commodi-
15 ties from foreign countries for the use of the United States in 16 accordance with mutual defense agreements or occupational 17 arrangements and such agencies may use the same for the 18 support of the United States forces in such areas, without 19 specific appropriations therefor: Provided, That within thirty 20 days after the end of each quarter the Secretary of Defense 21 shall render to Congress and to the Office of Management and 22 Budget a full report of such property, supplies, and com-23 modities received during such quarter.

24 SEC. 821. During the current fiscal year, appropria-
25 tions available to the Department of Defense for research

1 and development may be used for the purposes of section 2 2353 of title 10, United States Code, and for purposes related 3 to research and development for which expenditures are 4 specifically authorized in other appropriations of the service 5 concerned.

6 SEC. 822. No appropriation contained in this Act shall 7 be available for the payment of more than 75 per centum 8 of charges of educational institutions for tuition or expenses 9 for off-duty training of military personnel, nor for the pay-10 ment of any part of tuition or expenses for such training for 11 commissioned personnel who do not agree to remain on 12 active duty for two years after completion of such training.

13 SEC. 823. No part of the funds appropriated herein
14 shall be expended for the support of any formally enrolled
15 student in basic courses of the senior division, Reserve 16 Officers' Training Corps, who has not executed a certificate of 17 loyalty or loyalty oath in such form as shall be prescribed by 18 the Secretary of Defense.

19 SEC. 824. No part of any appropriation contained in 20 this Act shall be available for the procurement of any ar-
21 ticle of food, clothing, cotton, woven silk or woven silk blends, 22 spun silk yarn for cartridge cloth, synthetic fabric or coated 23 synthetic fabric, or wool (whether in the form of fiber or 24 yarn or contained in fabrics, materials, or manufactured ar-25 ticles) not grown, reprocessed, reused, or produced in the

1 United States or its possessions, except to the extent that the 2 Secretary of the Department concerned shall determine 3 that a satisfactory quality and sufficient quantity of any ar-
4 ticles of food or clothing or any form of cotton, woven silk 5 and woven silk blends, spun silk yarn for cartridge cloth, syn-
6 thetic fabric or coated synthetic fabric, or wool grown, re-7 processed, reused, or produced in the United States or its 8 possessions cannot be procured as and when needed at 9 United States market prices and except procurements outside 10 the United States in support of combat operations, procure-11 ments by vessels in foreign waters and emergency procure-12 ments or procurements of perishable foods by establishments
13 located outside the United States for the personnel attached 14 thereto: Provided, That nothing herein shall preclude the 15 procurement of foods manufactured or processed in the 16 United States or its possessions: Provided further, That no 17 funds herein appropriated shall be used for the payment of 18 a price differential on contracts hereafter made for the purpose 19 of relieving economic dislocations: Provided further, That 20 none of the funds appropriated in this Act shall be used ex-21 cept that, so far as practicable, all contracts shall be awarded 22 on a formally advertised competitive bid basis to the lowest 23 responsible bidder.

24 SEC. 825. None of the funds appropriated in this Act
25 shall be used for the construction, replacement, or reacti-

1 vation of any bakery, laundry, or dry-cleaning facility in the 2 United States, its territories or possessions, as to which the 3 Secretary of Defense does not certify in writing, giving his 4 reasons therefor, that the services to be furnished by such 5 facilities are not obtainable from commercial sources at rea-6 sonable rates.

7 SEC. 826. During the current fiscal year, appropria-
8 tions of the Department of Defense shall be available for 9 reimbursement to the Post Office Department for payment 10 of costs of commercial air transportation of military mail be-11 tween the United States and foreign countries.

12 SEC. 827. Appropriations contained in this Act shall 13 be available for the purchase of household furnishings, 14 and automobiles from military and civilian personnel on duty
15 outside the continental United States, for the purpose of re-16 sale at cost to incoming personnel, and for providing furnish-17 ings, without charge, in other than public quarters occupied 18 by military or civilian personnel of the Department of De-19 fense on duty outside the continental United States or in 20 Alaska, upon a determination, under regulations approved
21 by the Secretary of Defense, that such action is advantageous
22 to the Government.

23 SEC. 828. During the current fiscal year, appropria-
24 tions available to the Department of Defense for pay of 25 civilian employees shall be available for uniforms, or allow-

1 ances therefor, as authorized by law (5 U.S.C. 5901; 80
2 Stat. 508).

3 SEC. 829. During the current fiscal year, the Secretary
4 of Defense shall, upon requisition of the National Board for 5 the Promotion of Rifle Practice, and without reimbursement, 6 transfer from agencies of the Department of Defense to the 7 Board ammunition from stock or which has been procured 8 for the purpose in such amounts as he may determine.

9 Such appropriations of the Department of Defense avail-10 able for obligation during the current fiscal year as may be 11 designated by the Secretary of Defense shall be available 12 for the travel expenses of military and naval personnel, in-13 cluding the reserve components, and members of the Reserve 14 Officers' Training Corps attending regional, national, or in-15 ternational rifle matches.

16 SEC. 830. Funds provided in this Act for congressional 17 liaison activities of the Department of the Army, the Depart-18 ment of the Navy, the Department of the Air Force, and the 19 Office of the Secretary of Defense shall not exceed $1,150,- 20 000: Provided, That this amount shall be available for ap-
21 portionment to the Department of the Army, the Department 22 of the Navy, the Department of the Air Force, and the 23 Office of the Secretary of Defense as determined by the 24 Secretary of Defense.

25 SEC. 831. Of the funds made available by this Act

1 for the services of the Military Airlift Command, $100,- 2 000,000 shall be available only for procurement of com-
3 mercial transportation service from carriers participating 4 in the civil reserve air fleet program; and the Secretary of 5 Defense shall utilize the services of such carriers which qualify 6 as small businesses to the fullest extent found practicable:
7 Provided, That the Secretary of Defense shall specify in such 8 procurement, performance characteristics for aircraft to be 9 used based upon modern aircraft operated by the civil air fleet.

10 SEC. 832. Not less than $5,500,000 of the funds made 11 available in this Act for travel expenses in connection with 12 temporary duty and permanent change of station of civilian 13 and military personnel of the Department of Defense shall 14 be available only for the procurement of commercial passen-
15 ger sea transportation services on American-flag vessels.

16 SEC. 833. During the current fiscal year, appropria-
17 tions available to the Department of Defense for opera-18 tion may be used for civilian clothing, not to exceed $40 in 19 cost for enlisted personnel: (1) discharged for misconduct, 20 unfitness, unsuitability, or otherwise than honorably; (2) 21 sentenced by a civil court to confinement in a civil prison or 22 interned or discharged as an alien enemy; (3) discharged
23 prior to completion of recruit training under honorable con-24 ditions for dependency, hardship, minority, disability, or for 25 the convenience of the Government.

1 SEC. 834. No part of the funds appropriated herein
2 shall be available for paying the costs of advertising by 3 any defense contractor, except advertising for which pay-4 ment is made from profits, and such advertising shall not be 5 considered a part of any defense contract cost. The prohibi-6 tion contained in this section shall not apply with respect to 7 advertising conducted by any such contractor, in compliance
8 with regulations which shall be promulgated by the Secretary
9 of Defense, solely for (1) the recruitment by that contractor 10 of personnel required for the performance by the contractor of 11 obligations under a defense contract, (2) the procurement of 12 scarce items required by the contractor for the performance of 13 a defense contract, or (3) the disposal of scrap or surplus 14 materials acquired by the contractor in the performance of a 15 defense contract.

16 SEC. 835. Funds appropriated in this Act for main-17 tenance and repair of facilities and installations shall not 18 be available for acquisition of new facilities, or alteration, 19 expansion, extension, or addition of existing facilities, as de-20 fined in Department of Defense Directive 7040.2, dated Jan-21 uary 18, 1961, in excess of $25,000: Provided, That the 22 Secretary of Defense may amend or change the said directive 23 during the current fiscal year, consistent with the purpose of 24 this section.

25 SEC. 836. During the current fiscal year, the Secre-

1 tary of Defense may, if he deems it vital to the security
2 of the United States and in the national interest to further 3 improve the readiness of the Armed Forces, including the 4 reserve components, transfer under the authority and terms
5 of the Emergency Fund an additional $300,000,000: Pro-
6 vided, That the transfer authority made available under the 7 terms of the Emergency Fund appropriation contained in this 8 Act is hereby broadened to meet the requirements of this 9 section: Provided further, That the Secretary of Defense 10 shall notify Congress promptly of all transfers made pursuant 11 to this authority.

12 SEC. 837. None of the funds appropriated in this Act 13 may be used to make payments under contracts for any 14 program, project, or activity in a foreign country unless 15 the Secretary of Defense or his designee, after consultation 16 with the Secretary of the Treasury or his designee, certifies 17 to the Congress that the use, by purchase from the Treasury, 18 of currencies of such country acquired pursuant to law is 19 not feasible for the purpose, stating the reason therefor.

20 SEC. 838. (a) Appropriations available to the Depart-
21 ment of Defense during the current fiscal year shall be avail-
22 able for their stated purposes to support: (1) Vietnamese 23 and other free world forces in support of Vietnamese forces;
24 (2) local forces in Laos and Thailand; and for related costs.

1 on such terms and conditions as the Secretary of Defense may 2 determine.

3 (b) Within thirty days after the end of each quarter,
4 the Secretary of Defense shall render to Congress a report
5 with respect to the estimated value by purpose, by country, 6 of support furnished from such appropriations.

7 SEC. 839. During the current fiscal year, cash balances
8 in working capital funds of the Department of Defense 9 established pursuant to section 2208 of title 10, United 10 States Code, may be maintained in only such amounts as 11 are necessary at any time for cash disbursements to be made 12 from such funds: Provided, That transfers may be made 13 between such funds in such amounts as may be determined
14 by the Secretary of Defense, with the approval of the Office 15 of Management and Budget.

16 SEC. 840. No part of the funds appropriated under 17 this Act shall be used to pay salaries of any Federal em-
18 ployee who is convicted in any Federal, State, or local court 19 of competent jurisdiction, of inciting, promoting, or carrying 20 on a riot, or any group activity resulting in material damage 21 to property or injury to persons, found to be in violation of 22 Federal, State, or local laws designed to protect persons 23 or property in the community concerned.

24 SEC. 841. No part of the funds appropriated under this

1 Act shall be used to provide a loan, guarantee of a loan or 2 a grant to any applicant who has been convicted by any 3 court of general jurisdiction of any crime which involves 4 the use of or the assistance to others in the use of force, 5 trespass or the seizure of property under control of an institu-6 tion of higher education to prevent officials or students at 7 such an institution from engaging in their duties or pursuing 8 their studies.

9 SEC. 842. Appropriations heretofore made available for 10 Procurement of Equipment and Missiles, Army; Procure-11 ment of Aircraft and Missiles, Navy; Other Procurement, 12 Navy; Procurement, Marine Corps; Aircraft Procurement,
13 Air Force; Missile Procurement, Air Force; Other Pro-
14 curement, Air Force; Procurement, Defense Agencies;

16 available for obligation after June 30, 1973. Appro-17 priations heretofore made available for Shipbuilding and 18 Conversion, Navy, shall not be available for obligation after 19 June 30, 1975. Appropriations heretofore made available
20 under the headings Research, Development, Test, and Evalu-21 ation, Army; Research, Development, Test, and Evaluation,
22 Navy; Research, Development, Test, and Evaluation, Air
23 Force; and Research, Development, Test, and Evaluation, 24 Defense Agencies shall not be available for obligation after 25 June 30, 1972.

1 SEC. 843. In line with the expressed intention of the 2 President of the United States, none of the funds appro-
3 priated by this Act shall be used to finance the introduction
4 of American ground combat troops into Laos or Thailand.

5 SEC. 844. None of the funds appropriated in this Act
6 shall be available for the purposes which would be author-
7 ized by section 610 of the Military Construction Authoriza-8 tion Act, 1971, as passed by the Senate.

 This Act may be cited as the "Department of Defense Appropriation Act, 1971."
